

2016-2017 Susan B. Anthony Campus Award

Call for Nominations

On the 38th anniversary of this important University of Michigan-Dearborn honor, the Commission for Women invites members of the campus community to nominate candidates for the Susan B. Anthony Campus Award. Nominees should be individuals (male or female) who meet the criteria outlined below. This award will be presented at the Susan B. Anthony Awards Dinner on Tuesday, April 4, 2017.

A nomination form is attached which details the supporting documentation required. The Committee welcomes nominations of prior candidates with a current nomination form and letter of support. Please note: Susan B. Anthony award past recipients are eligible for re-nomination after ten years of receiving the award.

Susan B. Anthony Campus Award Criteria

The award will be presented to an individual whose life and deeds exemplify the dedicated efforts, fortitude, forcefulness and involvement of Susan B. Anthony, who challenged inequities suffered by women in society and who led the nation to recognize human rights. The recipient must exemplify Susan B. Anthony's persistence and determination and share her basic philosophy that Failure is Impossible.

The candidate for this award should be a member of the extended UM-D campus community (current faculty, staff, student, graduate, or supporter of the UM-D campus community) who:

- Serves as a role model for women or girls, based on professional accomplishments and/or contributions on behalf of women on the Dearborn campus,
- Is directly involved in enhancing the status or well-being of women or girls,
- Is actively involved in the promotion of equal rights for women.

Nominations must be submitted no later than Friday, February 24, 2017 to:
Bonnie Beyer, beyer@umd.umich.edu, C23 FCS
