

KELLOGG COMMUNITY COLLEGE

College of Arts, Sciences, and Letters

Literature, Philosophy, and the Arts

Art History | English | Philosophy

The Department of Literature, Philosophy, and the Arts (LPA) at the University of Michigan-Dearborn offers courses and programs in English and American literature, philosophy, art history, applied art, music, and music history. These courses and programs examine the legacy of the human experience and stress the traditions of free intellectual inquiry, critical thinking and ethical behavior. The department seeks to develop students' ability to engage in analysis and evaluation of texts and artifacts and to articulate their opinions effectively in oral and written form. Students receive personal supervision from senior faculty who are recognized experts in their fields.

MICHIGAN DIFFERENCE

At the University of Michigan-Dearborn, we emphasize hands-on learning, small class sizes, engaged faculty and a commitment to impact southeast Michigan. Students are developed to become Difference Makers in the workplace and in the community long before graduation. We are addressing challenges to the region head-on through pioneering research, strategic partnerships and civic engagement. We are creative thinkers, innovators and leaders, and we're proud to call Dearborn home. Our beautiful campus, once the grounds of the Henry Ford Estate, continues to foster his bold spirit of entrepreneurship and collaboration.

After graduation from UM-Dearborn, you will become a member of the University of Michigan Alumni Association – one of the largest living alumni networks in the world.

FACULTY & THE CLASSROOM

All bachelor's, master's, doctoral and professional degree programs are designed and led by highly qualified and engaged faculty, not teaching assistants. Classes are small—undergraduate lectures average 24 students and the student/faculty ratio is 15:1. Whatever your course of study, you'll get plenty of personal attention and support.

MICHIGAN TRANSFER AGREEMENT (MTA) AND DEARBORN DISCOVERY CORE (DDC)

The Michigan Transfer Agreement (MTA) facilitates the transfer of general education requirements from a Michigan community college to a university degree. When a student transfers to UM-Dearborn, the MTA will be applied to the Dearborn Discovery Core (DDC), a campus-wide general education program. The chart below shows which DDC categories are met by the MTA and which ones remain. Students should check with their community college to determine which courses can be used to fulfill the MTA categories and learn the details for obtaining an MTA endorsement on their transcript. Students transferring to UM-Dearborn must have the Michigan Transfer Agreement Satisfied designation posted on their transcript to take advantage of the MTA. Students who do not complete the entire MTA, or complete courses in addition to the MTA, will receive a course by course evaluation of those courses.
