

Resources for Program Design and Improvement

There are numerous resources available to you as you plan and/or improve your study abroad program. Some good introductory resources will be shared below. These are not required resources but are meant to supplement and support your planning needs and interests. Please email sa-umdearborn@umich.edu if you would like help finding more in-depth resources on specific topics related to study abroad.

- Crisis24 Horizon (a one-stop shop for location-based travel risk management)
- Standards of Good Practice by The Forum on Education Abroad
- Diversity and Inclusion Abroad Guide by Diversity Abroad
- Global Michigan by U-M Ann Arbor (including great resources on U-M policies, preparing for travel, and travel safety and wellness)
- Sustainable Travel by University of Minnesota
- Community Engagement: Collaborating for Change free training by U-M Ann Arbor
- Guidance for Developing an Instructor-Led Study Abroad Program by U-M Ann Arbor (most is applicable to UM-Dearborn)