

Comparative Literature Certificate Goals

The Comparative Literature Certificate is a Stand-Alone certificate that aims at providing learners with training in the following areas of comparative literature:

- 1) Reading complex texts of world cultures in translation. This is a necessary skill for any cross-cultural profession.
- 2) Critical and comparative analysis. This is an important skill for critical thinking.
- 3) Making connections between original texts and their translations. This is significant for bi-lingual and multi-lingual learners.
