

Medicinal and Aromatic Plants Certificate Goals

1. Students will be able to use modern techniques for isolation and purification of volatile oils from raw plants.
2. Students will use instruments to characterize volatile oils mixtures using methods that are routinely used in industry.
3. Students will interpret results and draw conclusions on the constituency and purity of volatile oils.
4. Students will skillfully use specialty literature to gain knowledge on volatile oils.