

Composition & Rhetoric - Professional Writing & Rhetoric Major

Student Learning Outcomes

Students who pursue the PWR major will learn to:

- Move between multiple audiences and genres
- Constructively critique the writing of their peers as well as their own
- Approach different writing occasions in creative, analytical, and reflective ways
- Understand the experiences of others in an effort to promote inclusivity and accessibility through writing

Additionally, students will engage with the following knowledge areas:

- Critical Thinking & Problem Solving Skills
- Writing & Editing Skills for a Variety of Forms, Styles, and Scripts
- Media Literacy
- Research Skills in Gathering and Critically Evaluating Information
- Appreciation of Diversity & Global Contexts
- Understanding of and Application of Link between Theory & Practice