

Industrial & Systems Engineering MSE Goals

1. Provide students with the requisite knowledge and skills that enable them to design, install and manage large integrated engineering and service systems.
2. Provide students with analytical skills that allow them to evaluate and improve large integrated engineering and service systems.
3. Provide students access to modern engineering tools that enable them to solve complex industrial and systems engineering problems.