

Information Systems & Technology MS Goals

1. Provide access to advances in the information systems field.
2. Provide necessary skills to effectively integrate information technology in organizations.
3. Provide training in specialized areas of information systems and technology.