

Manufacturing Engineering BSE Goals

1. Ability to design manufacturing processes that result in products that meet specific material and other requirements
2. Ability to design products and the equipment, tooling, and environment necessary for their manufacturing
3. Ability to create a competitive advantage through manufacturing planning
4. Ability to analyze, synthesize, and control manufacturing operations using statistical methods