

MS-Information Systems MAPPING OF COURSES TO PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

	Required Courses							Electives
Program Objective	MIS 525	MIS 575	MIS 641	MIS 642	MIS 644	MIS 649	MIS 650	MIS 527	MIS 643
Goal 1 – MS-IS students will acquire discipline-specific knowledge and competencies.
a. Students will design an information system for an organization.		X					X
b. Students will evaluate security risks of an organization.			X	X
c. Students will use data to provide solutions to business questions.						X
Goal 2 – MS-IS students will develop effective communication skills.
a. Students will communicate complex IT concepts orally.			X	X	X	X		X	X
b. Students will communicate complex IT concepts effectively in writing.	X		X	X	X	X		X	X
Goal 3 – MS-IS students will develop IT strategy skills.
a. Students will be able to assess the impact of IT strategy on organizational effectiveness.	X				X				X
b. Student will manage information quality initiatives in organizations.							X

 indicates the course where the objective is measured.

Note:

Students take 7 required courses and 3 additional electives among arrange of courses from MIS and other disciplines.

MIS 525 can be exempted.

Updated in Fall 2016.