

CASL Supplemental Instruction

Learning Outcomes

As a result of participating in SI, students will:

1. Increase their understanding of course concepts.
2. Develop critical thinking skills that mature beyond memorization in a way that enables them to evaluate, analyze and demonstrate evidence of their learning.
3. Acquire transferable study skills which will allow students to become more confident in their approach to mastering future difficult material.